

Wednesday 12th June 2024 Llandudno

£435 Per Person

Stopping at the Somerset Hotel

Return Luxury coach travel

4 Nights Half-Board Accommodation with Porterage

Evening Entertainment confirmed by your driver on tour

2 full day excursions

Day 1 - After departure we travel to Llandudno, making comfort stops en-route and arriving mid- afternoon with enough time to roam around before your evening meal.

Day 2 - Day at Leisure.

Day 3 – After breakfast we head towards Caernarfon, which is famous for its castle. The castle was built in the 13th century by Edward 1st as a royal palace and a military fortress. You will have some free time to explore Caernarfon at your own leisure before returning back to your hotel.

Day 4 - After breakfast we head towards Betws-y-Coed, giving you some free time before we make our way back to Llandudno via the pass of Llanberis.

Day 5 - After breakfast you have the morning to explore Llandudno before making our way back home, hoping to arrive mid-afternoon. We hope this has been a lovely time away with us and look forward to seeing you again soon.